The success of POI lies within two entities.

The satisfaction of our clients our reputation

We are a moderately small company with large expectations. We offer the personal attention that larger companies cannot offer. We take pride in satisfying our clients and will always be available when you need us. You will receive personalized service you desire and you will see our management onsite normally.
The satisfaction of our people who we are.

Our ROI Specialists excel in customer service, reliability and ROI expertise. Our original employees from 1997 are still in our employment at our very first facility. Let this speak volumes. Our employees are very dedicated, not only to POI, but to our clients. We are very proud of our employees and we are confident you will be just as proud to have them as a member of your HIM team.
